

CCSU BCA 1st Semester – Indian Knowledge System

2026 Exam-Oriented Important Notes

Unit I – Introduction

- Meaning and scope of Indian Knowledge System (IKS)
- Indian knowledge traditions and their characteristics
- Sources of Indian knowledge: Vedas, Upanishads, epics, philosophical traditions and classical texts
- Knowledge transmission and the guru-shishya tradition

Unit II – Indian Sciences & Mathematics

- Indian contributions to mathematics
- Zero and place-value system
- Aryabhata and other classical mathematicians
- Astronomy and calendar traditions
- Basic scientific and technological contributions

Unit III – Health, Yoga & Philosophy

- Ayurveda: basic concepts and preventive health
- Yoga: meaning, objectives and major practices
- Indian philosophical schools – basic overview
- Holistic view of knowledge and life

Unit IV – Culture & Contemporary Relevance

- Indian arts, literature and architecture – overview
- Traditional knowledge and sustainability
- IKS in modern education and research
- Preservation and responsible use of traditional knowledge

■ Important Questions for Revision

- Explain IKS and its major sources.
- Discuss Indian contributions to mathematics and astronomy.
- Write short notes on Ayurveda and Yoga.
- Explain the relevance of traditional knowledge in sustainability.

Note: These are revision-oriented notes aligned to the current CCSU BCA 2025–26 subject structure; they are not a prediction of the exact 2026 paper.